

All will be well

This is the prayer that mum read the evening that dad died:

Come as you are
That's how I want you
Don't run away ashamed and disheartened
Nothing can change the love that I bear you
All will be well
Just come as you are offered by Fionnuala Herder-Wynne